Their next meeting is February 19 and the next in-person meeting is March 4th. They have one open committee slot.
- ii. C/Col Harris: Not Present to give a report. Reach out for details.
- f. Senior Adviser Report -
 - CMSgt Furniss: The December newsletter was never posted and leadership has not been passing down taskings effectively.

3. OLD BUSINESS:

- a. Newsletter Discussion
 - i. The PAO committee met December 10, but all communication broke down. All wings except for Idaho did not turn in their PA packages for the December newsletter and Wyoming turned theirs in days late. This happened even though every wing committed to turn in packages complete and on time.
 - C/Nelson discussed that his Wing has committees but they haven't accomplished anything. His solution is for the RCAC to create a committee to create clear standards and taskings.
 - a. C/Petro clarified that it would be a standards and evaluation committee.

- b. C/Gargano noted that communication is breaking from the PAO leadership or the leadership from the committee leadership. He suggested that the CAC be able to review the not-yet-published document 60-35 for clarity on how to run CAC effectively. He also recommended that task conditions and standards need to be set for every tasking
- c. C/Parkoff commented that this might be an issue with taskings not being passed down the chain of command effectively
- d. More discussion occurred from the CAC and a final resolution that leadership must ensure that taskings are being passed down to each Wing with clear standards and conditions.
- e. C/Gargano also noted on the side that the newsletters should start to be named by the month they are published, not the month before.
- b. Motivation for Taskings
 - i. Taskings will be arriving so remember to stay motivated
- c. Updates on Cadet Track Planning
 - i. There has been a committee created but no tasking have been assigned yet.

4. NEW BUSINESS:

- a. Hardships in Wing CAC
 - i. If Wings need help with anything please make sure to reach out to the RCAC for help.
